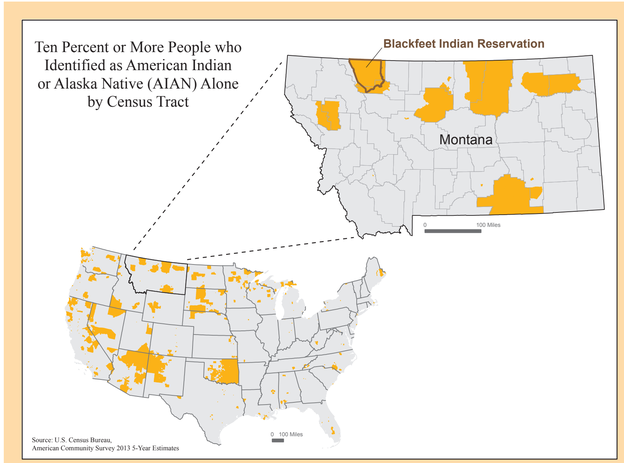
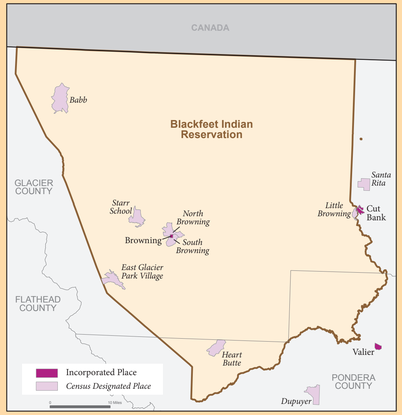
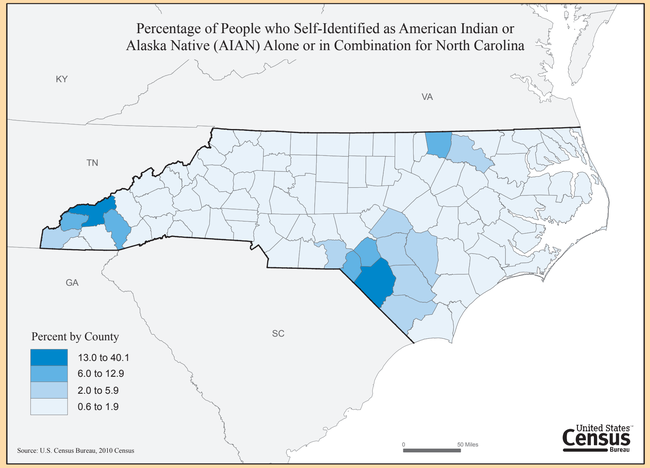
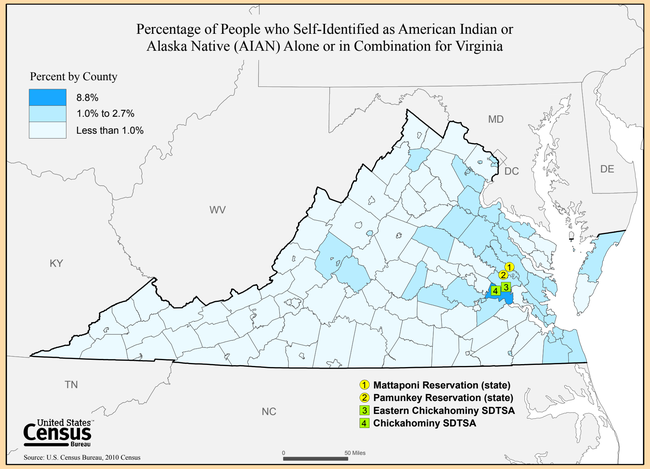
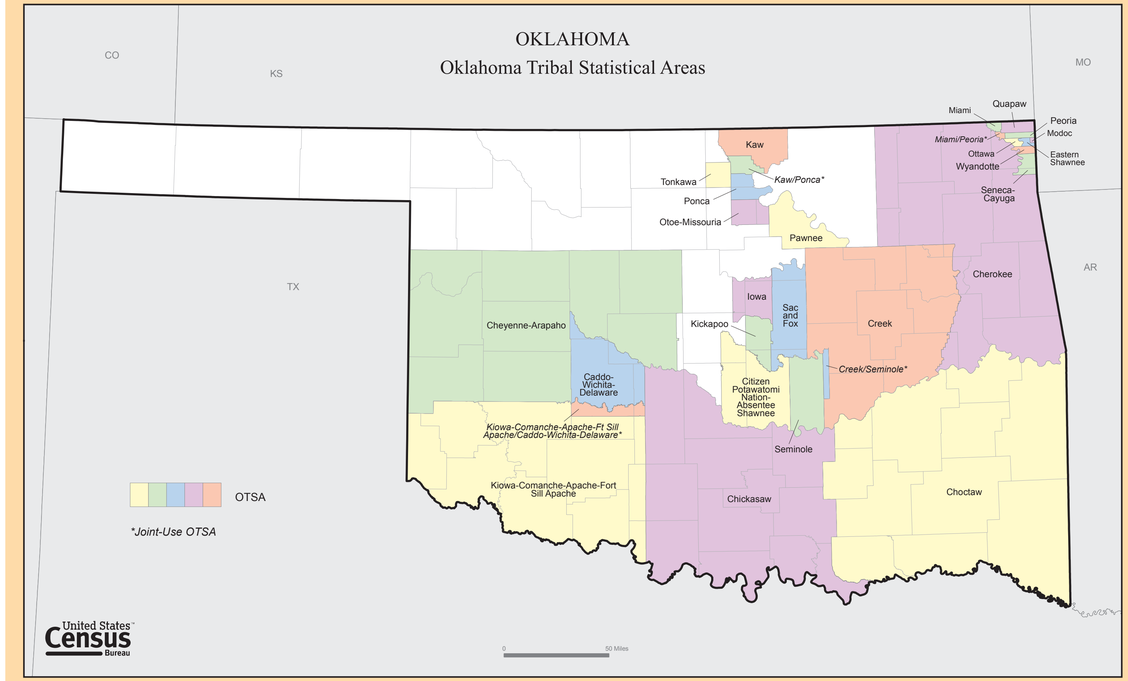
SUPPORTING TRIBAL PARTNERSHIP AND OUTREACH

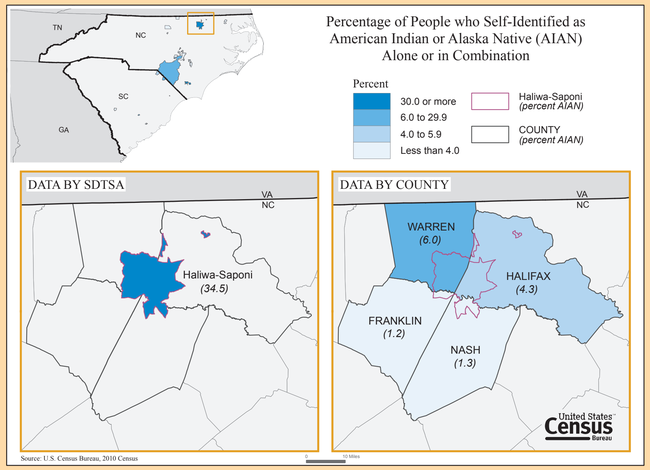
In designing a 2020 Census to completely and accurately count American Indians and Alaska Natives, the U.S. Census Bureau holds government-to-government consultations with tribal nations.


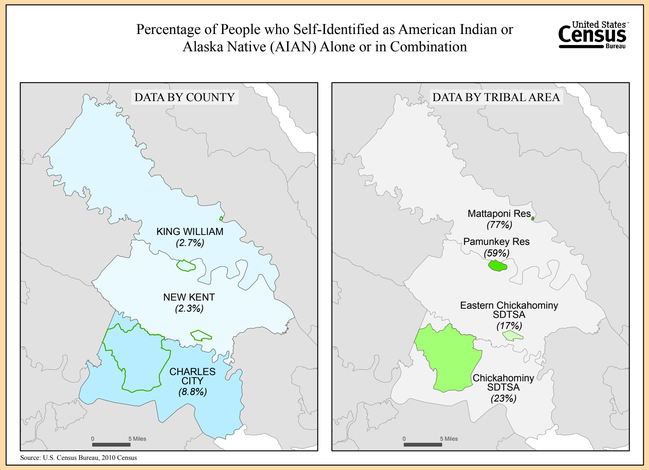


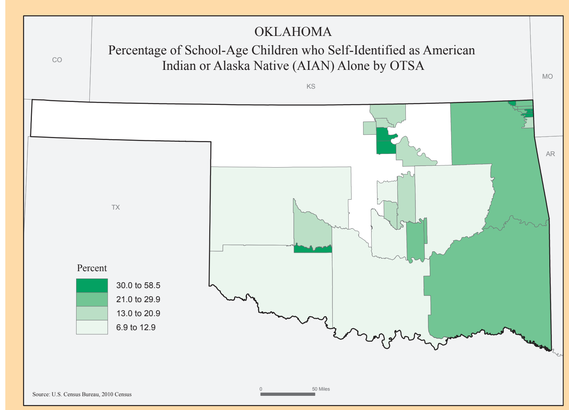


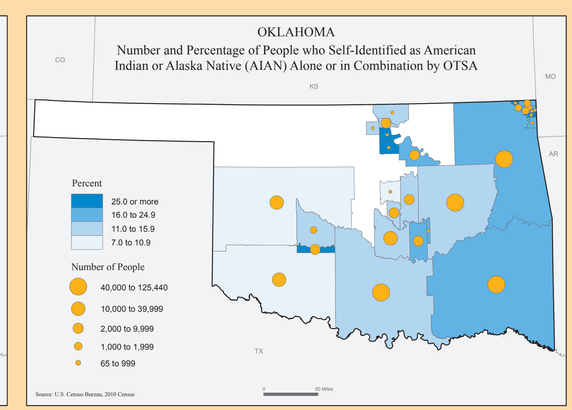












The maps below represent examples created to support consultations with various federally recognized tribal governments and state recognized tribes.