

Nursing Care Facilities, Continuing Care Retirement Communities, and Assisted Living Facilities for the Elderly

5-Year Change in Number of Establishments for Top 10 States

These establishments are primarily engaged in providing inpatient nursing and rehabilitative services and residential and personal care services for the elderly and others who are unable to fully care for themselves and/or do not desire to live independently.<sup>1,2</sup>

Percent Change in Number of Establishments From 2007 to 2012<sup>3</sup>

U.S. percent change: 5.0%

<sup>1</sup> Inpatient nursing and rehabilitative services are generally provided for an extended period of time.

<sup>2</sup> Residential and personal care services typically include room, board, supervision, and assistance in daily living.

<sup>3</sup> These percentages reflect the change in number of establishments in the industries classified as Nursing Care Facilities (NAICS 6231) and Continuing Care Retirement Communities and Assisted Living Facilities for the Elderly (NAICS 6233), and only include establishments with payroll.

Note: Not all assisted living facilities offer nursing care.