

90% Joint Confidence Region for the Ranking by Using Travel Time to Work Data: Bold highlighted states in the joint confidence region show the observed estimated ranking; each specific row of the joint confidence region shows which states could occupy the associated rank; each specific column of the joint confidence region shows which ranks the associated state could occupy; for example, rank (row) 10 could be occupied by states OK, AR, NM, UT or VT; state (column) MN could occupy ranks 15, 16, 17, 18, 19,..., 25 or 26 (Source, based on data from 2011 1-year ACS, ranking table R0801; US Bureau of the Census, Washington DC)